

Amber's speech at Yonatan's Bar Mitzva Lunch, Shabbat 8th November 2014

Hello and welcome to the Bar Mitzva of my brother, Yonatan.

When Yonatan came into this world, I was a little girl of two years old. I thought that he was small and cute and red, and I still think this, but there are some differences!

1. He can speak!
2. He is big – thirteen years old!

Yonatan, you are now a big boy, at a very challenging stage – I know, I've already been there. You need to know that I'll always be there for you if you have questions about school, clothes or girls! I'll always protect you, because that's my job. So lots of mazal tov, and I'll always love you.

Thank you.
